

House Resolution No. 2869

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exceptional citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Marjorie J. Dunaway of Farmington has attained considerable distinction in life as a former public librarian, school teacher, IRS tax employee, and private healthcare service provider; and

Whereas, born on June 29, 1929, in Herculaneum, Marjorie Dunaway will be treated to a surprise Seventy-fifth Birthday celebration to be hosted by her family on June 6, 2004, in the Ben-Nor Apartments meeting room in her hometown; and

Whereas, the daughter of Jesse Harbour and Chloe Lucille Osman Harbour, Marjorie Dunaway is the mother of five children who are talented and highly successful as adults, William Michael Dunaway, Tim Dunaway, Thomas Dunaway, Stephen L. Dunaway, and Melanie S. Dunaway Thomas; and

Whereas, Marjorie Dunaway also has enjoyed much love and affection in life through her special status as the grandmother of ten wonderful children; and

Whereas, Marjorie Dunaway is an active member, teacher, pianist, and presiding counselor in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; and

Whereas, earlier in her life Marjorie Dunaway was the recipient of such honors and accolades as the Tommy Alexander Award, a Young Woman of the Year Award from the Business and Professional Women of Farmington, and selection as Valedictorian of the Independent Study Graduating Class at Brigham Young University; and

Whereas, in addition to her many family, church, and community endeavors, Marjorie Dunaway deserves particular commendation of her work as co-chair of Sarah Barton Murphy Day in Farmington:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive life of Marjorie Dunaway, to express to her this legislative body's heartiest "Happy Birthday" wishes, and to convey our sincerest hope that she will enjoy continued personal achievements for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Marjorie J. Dunaway of Farmington, Missouri.
